“ Danny played a big role in our childhood, he brought much laughter and many happy memories. We were seven children whose dad had passed away at a young age. He always had a funny story to share and we believed everything he told us. He once told us when he was in Alaska, it was so cold that when he spoke his words came out in ice cubes...naturally we believed him. Danny helped our mother with home repairs and entertained us in the process. Whenever something broke, we knew we were going to have some fun, because Danny was coming to fix it. Danny had the biggest heart, a kind soul and was one of the funniest people we ever met. He left us with many happy memories that will forever live in our hearts. He truly was one in a million. We extend our deepest condolences to the family, you are all in our prayers and thoughts. The Vostinar Family

“ Dan always had a great sense of humor. He always had a joke to tell.
I also remember his Saint Patrick's Day parade that led with the Salute to the flag along with the pledge of allegiance. We march around the block with kids and parents and ended back at his house for hot cocoa . Always made us smile. RIP Uncle Sam.
