“ We are neighbors of George & Martha for 28 yrs now. We can't say enough about what a great guy George has been through the years. He has been a great husband to Martha & wonderful father to his two beautiful children It was hard to see him suffer through his illness but boy or boy was he a trooper. God Bless George & his family during this rough time 🙏🙏🙏

“ The George Forstner I knew was a loving Husband The George Forstner I knew was a loving Father.
The George Forstner I knew was a loving Brother.
The George Forstner I knew was a loving Son.
The George Forstner I knew was a loving Son-n-Law.
The George Forstner I knew was a loving Uncle.
The George Forstner I knew was a loving Brother-in-law.
The George Forstner I knew was a good friend to many.
The George Forstner I knew was Strong.
The George Forstner I knew was a Gentlemen.
The George Forstner I knew was the kind of guy to give you the shirt off his back.
The George Forstner I knew was a Fisherman who landed on the cover of the Long Island Fisherman for catching a 460lb Mako.
The George Forstner I knew was a Gardner who could take an otherwise dusty patch of dirt and turn it into a beautiful garden.
The George Forstner I knew was a Baseball Player who's team played in the Little League World Series.
The George Forstner I knew was very smart and held two College degrees, one in Horticulture and the other in English Literature.
The George Forstner I knew would do the NY Times Cross word puzzle in "Pen" and complete it in minutes.
The George Forstner I knew would watch Jeopardy and answer better than 80% of the questions before the contestants.
The George Forstner I knew appreciated Music, he would listen to sounds of Led Zeppelin and Metallica followed by Phantom of the Opera and Les Miserables.
The George Forstner I knew was a very talented Writer and had a big appreciation for all kinds of books, both fiction and non-fiction.
The George Forstner I knew must be part Viking because I have never been a witness to bravery, courage, and strength he displayed in his fight against this terrible disease.
The George Forstner I knew was unselfish as he put his families needs before his own.
The George Forstner I knew never complained even as I watched him struggle with excruciating pain.

Losing my parents in the last couple of years has been hard enough, but losing George feels like a sucker punched to the gut. It doesn't seem real, but as the hours go by the initial shock is starting to fade and the reality of it all is beginning to settle in.

I remember the first time I met George and I also remember how my parents treated him like a son, although we were not born to the same Mother and Father he will always be a brother to me.

*Peace-out my brother, I love you and will miss you terribly.
