

Mrs. Ingrid Imelda Ramnauth

January 19, 1949 - November 19, 2023

Ingrid Ramnauth, born January 19th, 1949, was and always will be a loving and caring person. She leaves behind her husband John Ramnauth of 54 years of marriage. Over the course of those years, they had 3 children, Troy Vasant, Aliza (Lisa) Indira and Erik Vishnu. In addition, they have 6 grandchildren: Sean, Briana, Ariella, Kaitlin, Madison, and Erik. The lives of these individuals were not the only ones that Ingrid has helped to mold and guide. Ingrid was the third eldest out of eight brothers and sisters, a sister-in-law to her husband's brothers and sisters and an exceptional aunt to all their nieces and nephews and their children. While always being an ear to listen and a shoulder to cry on for all of them, Ingrid was always known to be helpful and compassionate to those in need whether it is family or to the many of children she was an educator to at St. Francis of Assisi. Many of those children were aided by Ingrid through her philanthropic nature and they attribute their successes in life to her. She has touched so many and a hole will be left without her inviting personality and one-of-a-kind sense of humor to fill the void. Anyone who met or knew Ingrid became a better person through her generosity and wisdom while she asked for nothing in return. Ingrid truly embraced what it means to give without wanting and would put herself second for the benefit of anyone who knew her.

The family and friends of Ingrid Ramnauth truly lost one of the most genuine and loving persons we will ever have the honor and privilege of knowing but the Lord has received one of the greatest gifts the world has to offer. Godspeed, we will always love and miss you. This is not goodbye but a see you later!

“ Ms R 💔💔💔💔💔 nobody told me about her death. I am so so sad and I am so so sorry to the family. She was my second grade teacher, and she literally changed the whole trajectory of my time at Saint Francis like without her I probably wouldn't have had as many friends as I did. She always looked out for me and she was so so caring and I am so so so sad about this. I just found out yesterday and I wish I would've attended her funeral.

“ Played her own instruments in her orchestra of life, being her true self. Too many people go to their graves with money in the bank, but nothing in their hearts. She had millions in her heart integrity account. Loves gives everything and expects nothing. She was unapologetically in the love zone. Her riches is not about how much she had. How much she gave. She gave a lot. My wish was her to be here everyday, every year, even for thanksgiving and Christmas. But, God had other plans. This is my prayer from a brother, same mother, same father, siblings, blessed. She made every day her masterpiece. Loving sister you have passed life's test. Rest In Peace.
