

Mrs. Joan DeMaio

April 4, 1934 - February 4, 2021

On Thursday, February 4th, 2021, Joan DeMaio, loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, passed away at the age of 86. Joan was born on April 14th, 1934 in Park Slope, Brooklyn to Nora and William Dwyer. Joan was a kind and generous woman, loved by all who knew her. She was very involved in the community of Gerritsen Beach where she spent most of her life. Joan was president of the Women's Auxiliary at the local VFW and participated in the Rosary Society at Resurrection Roman Catholic Church. She especially loved dancing, playing slot machines, and rooting for the New York Mets. Joan spent many years working on Wall Street, but her favorite role was being a mother.

Joan was the last surviving of her siblings and was also preceded in death by her husband, Salvatore, and her beloved son, Donald. She is survived by her sons, Edward (Ed) and Lawrence (Larry), their wives, Edith and Donna, eight grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly.

“ I was blessed to have the kindest, sweetest mother in law! Like everyone who loves you, I wanted more time to hear you laugh ,share a meal, and just talk for hours about nothing and everything! I miss you ,I love you Joan always and forever!

“ Aunt Joan you will be missed. So many great memories when I was young. Being with you, Grandma, Aunt Dotty and Aunt Winnie are some of my greatest childhood memories. Now let the party in heaven begin. I know my mom is giving you the biggest hug.
