“Joan was President of our Coop Board when I purchased my apartment; I was delighted to find that we lived on the same floor, as she became a good friend. I recently lost my youngest grandson to a subway accident and Joan sent me a lovely card, with an invite to come in and talk if I needed/wanted to. She always decorated our end of the hallway and was thoughtful in so many other ways. I will miss her very much. My sincere condolences to her family.”

“ Joan V. Resta died March 2, 2020. She was our cherished mother, grandmother, great grandmother and mother-in-law, the bedrock of our family.

She grew up in Bergen Beach. Joan was married for 38 years to our wonderful father, Gennaro Resta, who predeceased her. She raised four children in Glenwood Housing project, and was immensely proud of all their educational, professional, and personal achievements.

Joan was an adoring and adored grandmother and great grandmother to Jennifer, John, Jillian, Emily, Elizabeth, Peter, Katherine, Thomas, Violet and Anaya.

If you feel like she was also your mother or grandmother a little bit, you are not alone.

Later in life, after her husband died, Joan cherished many years of friendship with Tom Gilfeather. She also travelled the world with her family.

She was President of her Co-op Board, unofficial “Mayor of West Court”, baker of cupcakes for all, and ever hopeful Mets fan.

Joan will always be remembered as the best mom ever. Her love and her guidance will be with us eternally.
