

Mr. Joseph C. Quinlivan

March 13, 1926 - November 19, 2022

Joe was born to Leo and Mary Quinlivan on March 13, 1926 in Chelsea, New York City. He had an older brother, Leo, and he created a large extended family for himself from his many close friends. He married Peggy Hughes in 1955 and was married to her for 55 years. He was a loving father to his five children, Mary, Joe, Margaret, Jim, and Ann, as well as to his daughter-in-law, Won, and son-in-law, Bob. Joe adored his five grandchildren, Joe, Chrissie, Claire, Kathy, and Julie, and his great-granddaughter, Freya. He loved his nieces and nephews, and he was devoted to his many friends. He was a proud World War II veteran who retired at the age of 77 after working for twenty-five years as a conductor on the MTA and twenty-seven years as a security guard at NYU. Joe was an old-school New York character and the epitome of the American dream.

He was greatly loved and will be greatly missed.

He will remain in our hearts forever.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the death of Mr. Quinlivan. His wife and my mother were great friends during my grammar school days, and I will always remember how nice Mr. and Mrs. Quinlivan and all of their children- Mary, Joseph, Margaret, James, and Anne- were to everyone. - John Fox
