“ My deep condolences to Lindsey. You and your Mom are in my prayers!

Pam Hoyt - April 01, 2015 at 02:51 PM

“ Dear Patti, Such a terrible tragedy. Kenny was too young and full of life. I will miss him busting my ass and seeing him at the races and seeing him with you because you two were a force together. I am so sorry this has happened. May you find solace and warmth in the words and promises of our Lord. Alan and Kenny are together now and They are probably looking down on us right now. Peace to you Patti.

“ Ever since I was a kid, I can always remember "Uncle Kenny" being SO MUCH FUN! Spending the summers in Brooklyn was something we looked forward to, and I am so proud that my own children were given the opportunity to know just how much fun "Uncle Kenny" was. Last October, my children had such a great time in Brooklyn, and those memories they will cherish for years to come. Patti and Kenny are the most generous, fun, and kindhearted people anyone can ever meet. We will hold these memories dear to our hearts, and be thankful for all the fun times we have shared over the years.

“ I feel like you're still here Kenny, I can still hear your laugh. You were such a good friend and my kids are gonna miss you. You left them with great memories that they'll never forget. You took David and Cathy on their first boat ride and zip lined from one mountain to another. I gonna miss you.

“ Words can't express this tremendous loss. Kenny was like family to us, always good for a laugh and one of the most caring, selfless people I've ever known. Kenny was so full of life this doesn't seem possible. He is truly gone too soon and will be deeply missed. My thoughts are with Patti, Lindsey, and the family.

“ I Can't stop thinking about Kenny ! Truly one great man always around to help everyone, and smiling entertaining and full of life ! Adored his wife and daughter & such an amazing man! He helped me many times and always offered jumps in the pool, boat rides with my boys & family. he treated my bro and his wife and kids like family and my neice Alexa was his lil helper and shadow! That I myself adopted him as apart of mine, he'd give his shirt off his back to help ! This summer off is gonna be tremendously hard for me with out seeing u present on the block, and Harrassing one of us -tossing the kids in the pool and never being able to meet baby Davin ( his last words to me was wow ur belly is huge( due any day) and when I said I love patty she's the best & amazing " his response was "she is & I love her too! Breaks my heart that heaven took our angel;( so soon Kenny may you rest in peace and hope my mom takes ya under her wing! Oxo

Joan Petrochko - March 22, 2015 at 05:41 PM

“ Hi Patti,

I would like to offer you our condolences, Kenny was always a joy to be around and always happy even when things were tough. I enjoyed our trip to Detroit and the times we stayed with you guys in Brooklyn He actually gave me many pep talks and I always enjoyed the inspiration. Kenny will always be remembered in my life and let the lord take care of you through this troubling time. Our Prayers are with you Patti... My Mom also would like to say how much she enjoyed Kenny's company on our Detroit trip and she will never forget him helping Joni through her seizure.

“ After 25 years of not seeing Kenny and Patti, I had the privilege of seeing them again the Saturday before Kenny's horrific accident. Kenny was so full of joy and life and he and Patti were so very happy! It was such a joy to spend time with them!

The shock of his passing is so surreal and I keep asking God 'Why'? :(

My heartfelt condolences are with Patti, Lindsey and their family and friends. I pray that God will be your Comforter and your Healer of your broken hearts.

As a christian I know that I will see Kenny again in Heaven; until then he is seated with our Father and is now one of our Angels looking down upon his wife, his daughter, and his family and friends. Heaven has gained a wonderful Angel !!!

RIP, Kenny.... Although you were taken too soon, you left your mark on this earth and you will always be remembered with a Smile. You might be gone, but you will not be forgotten!!!
