Tribute Wall

“ This is the Lorane I will always remember - a wonderful woman, always full of love, laughter, so giving and most of all, so knowledgeable. There wasn't anything she didn't know. I'm so grateful for everything I learned from her. St. James without Lorane is a very hard concept to conceive, but her influence in all the different parts of our beautiful church will be felt always. We will surely miss her dolls, her jewelry and of course her Thrift Shoppe sales, but I think the lack of her spunk and witty self at church and events will be felt for years to come. RIP Lorane, please watch over all of us, we will miss you dearly. <3

“ These last few weeks have been really tough
But with all the driving back and forth to hospitals and the nursing home it gave me the time to reflect on my mother’s life and how that intertwined with all of ours
I thought about how caring my mother was to not only her family, but everyone else.
I remembered when we ate bologna sandwiches at the beach that were laced with sand
I remembered the times when we would race the car down the street hitting a bump that would leave us airborne for a second followed by uncontrollable laughter and a “don’t tell your father”.
I remembered the times when she would dance around the living room singing “We’ll Sing in the Sunshine” or when she would use a coffee strainer as a megaphone imitating Vaughn Monroe singing “Racing with the Moon”
I remembered times when she would take us shopping and made sure we were dressed just right for any occasion
I remembered how she loved my Father, and the whole family

I will miss all of this, how she was and how she lived her life
Lorane Gramlich loved life and she cherished her friendships

“ Lorane was always so kind and giving, she was such a large part of our growing up on Avenue W, Lorane was always there for us. Lorane and Jerry always attended all the important events in our lives.

I remember talking to Lorane a few days after her heart attack-she told me she just came in from mass at St.James- I thought what a power of example Lorane is, This lady of great faith.

*Love Always

“ Lorane was an elegant, poised, kind, and very funny woman. She had a generous spirit and a lively sharp mind. It was an honor and a pleasure to have been able to call her my friend. I will miss her but am also so very grateful for the time that I had with her. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire extended Gramlich family in your loss. Lorane will be very missed.
