*Henry David Thoreau once wrote: "You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and forge yourself one."
And Mikes character was one of a true gentleman. My deepest sympathies and condolences for the Duffy family. He will be missed, but his character will be for eternity.*

I recognized his face and was very sad to hear of his passing. Mike always gave me a nice "hello" and a wave every time he saw me running at the park. I always admired the way he just always said "hello." I was a complete stranger to him. What always made me laugh was that I only saw him run when it was extremely hot out. I never ever saw him on a cool day. Very sad.

*I appologize. I just found out about the loss off Michael. I know there are many year that are between us now because of life changes my heart still aches for a warrior who stood for the red, white and blue and the freedom of the USA and for the life of his brother's and sister's trying to save those in the Tower on 911. I thank him for his heroism. May he rest in peace in the arms of the Lord and share the love and prayers that has been said for his firefigherters, first responders, police and priest that are holding hands together continuing to be strong,
