“ Words cannot describe how sadden I am by your loss. I know how close of a family tide exit at the Shevlin home. I know what a great job Mr. and Mrs. Shevlin have done raising a beautiful family. Your dad was the King of the Castle. He started this beautiful family. I know how much he loved his family especially his sweetie Mrs. Shevlin. When your friends are hurting, you too feel their pain. I can honestly say that I am so sorry. May the Lord give you the strength to move forward. Knowing Mr. Shevlin he would like nothing better but to see his family happy and to continue being the beautiful family he put together. RIP Mr. Shevlin and I must say you left nothing but good memories. So glad to have known you in this life. Love Molly Barreto

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your father as so hard working, patient and kind. He'd let us all hang out in your living room ... we'd dance and sing so loud. He'd leave his bedroom so we could hang out the window then leave the living room so we could watch a movie, not a complaint out of him. He put his family first always wanted joy for you all... i remember how he'd decorate the house for the holidays... so over the top to make things nice and pretty for you all. What a Dad! He'd cook, he'd clean, he'd paint... Always painting the apt to make it nice for his family. He was awesome. May your wonderful memories of him and his strong love for you all last in your hearts forever. Rest in Peace Mr. Shevlin

“ Hi my sweet dad, I love u and thank u for even in death , u made sure we are all at peace, right til your last breath u did everything for us the right way, not one of us was ever once disappointed by u or told, the words, I can't, u didn't know what I can't meant, tt wasn't in your vocabulary, my love for u is so special, I only wish from this day forward that I can love Christmas which I hate, Easter, which I hate and the other holidays I hated all my life for absolutely no reason, but just didn't understand y u made such a big deal out of everyday of the year, and now I know y, u truly were happy and content with your life, please dad watch over me so that my kids can have this special feeling in their heart when they lose me, help me to be like u were, more patient, more homey, dad I think by u passing, I have finally had that void in my heart filled, I know longer feel like I'm missing something, and its the first time since I can remember. Love allyson

“ My love my life, I owe it all to u! U r the love of my life always and forever, thank u for kissing me every single day of my 46 years and never forgetting to make everything ok! I will miss hearing that beautiful soft voice telling me the right answer and never telling me that u couldn't talk to me, thank u for helping us when we lost James, I know your heart was crushed but u were strong and sent James off to heaven for us, I love u more than u could know for taking care of April for me, u saved my life by doing that and got me out of the stupid chair. I'm sorry I wasted time crying and hurting and not knowing what to do. You r my dad and I am the luckiest girl in the world, and I know u r saying, enough, enough, already, but I just can't stop expressing my love to, love Allyson , your doll

“ Patrick was a role model. A guy who put others before himself and always thought of the next person, always being helpful and happy whilst doing it. He was like my father, considering I grew up without one. Patrick Molloy filled that void with his kind soul and generosity. He will be forever missed, but now rests in the kingdom of heaven with my father and his parents.

“ Patrick was not just a fun loving caring wonderful person, he was my grandfather and I loved him so much. I would do anything to be with his soul. He always made me laugh when I was crying because he hated to see people upset and not happy. I really believe that whenever a family or friend saw him, he lightied up their day. No one could have a unkind word to say about him. He was truly the best man in my life and I will never go one moment without missing him. I hope every one could come to his "going away party" to say goodbye one last time.
