“ Missing Phil very much so. In the short time I knew him I felt like we knew each other for a lifetime. Had great times and remember nothing but good and all the fun we had running around Delray. Thanks for watching over all of us bud, especially Rosie. We feel your presence and remember all the laughter to help us cope with your departure.

“ Phil was my supervisor from 2001-2006 when our department, CFS, was scuttled at the Brooklyn GMF. I left the P.O. in 2007 and I now reside in Philly. I just found out that Phil passed away back in 2013 and it has hit me as if it was yesterday. I'm so sorry to hear about the untimely passing of such a great supervisor, human being, and motorcycle enthusiast. Keep ridin' Phil....

“ If some lives form a perfect circle, other take shape in ways we cannot predict or always understand. Loss has been part of my journey. But it has also shown me what is precious. So has love for which I can only be grateful. ”

This picture was taken 4 days after the 911 attacks, we all volunteered at Shea stadium along with the Mets manager Bobby Valentine, and ended up a Dilligaf's for a toast to all who had died.

“ Sending condolences to Phil's Family, I am so sadden with his passing. Phil has touched so many people in his special way. Always the big brother to me. I will remember his special smile. I remember when he was in the navy and we were going to be in Greece at the same time, and how we were going to meet. Well, my old fashion Greek Aunt wouldnt let me out of the house, she locked the doors. Still so many years of laughs and good times which will never be forgotten. Will Miss You So Much Phil, and how you always said my name. Love Ares

“ My deepest, saddest condolences to all of Phil's loved ones. The hundreds of memories I have of Phil and Myself, over the years. From sleeping out in Mike Farace's yard and waking up early and helping ourselves to a couple of rolls that were delivered to the stores before they opened, and sneaking into the Paradise Yacht club's pool for a midnight swim. The endless nights hanging out at the end of Channel Ave. Even being the third wheel as he walked his first love Linda back home to Sheepshead Bay. All the way up to going on motorcycle rides and events together. I am so glad I have all of these previous memories. I'll see you soon enough my buddy.

I remember Phillip from days at Kingsborough community college. We took a photography class together. We had a lot of fun, he was a good friend. He was very competitive. When trying to teach me handball, he asked me, "are you even trying?" A few years later my boyfriend (now husband) and I attended Phillip's wedding to Mary. We lost contact after that. I am sorry to learn about his passing. I am sure there are lots of people missing him.
