

Mr Richard Wong Chow

September 26, 1942 - January 27, 2021

On January 27, 2021, Richard Chow passed through death to everlasting life. Richard grew up and lived in Chinatown until the age of 27. While working for the NYC transit during the midnight shift and going to community college, he nevertheless had the time to meet a beautiful college senior, Margaret Chin. Richard and Margaret (aka Peggy) would get married and settle in Midwood Brooklyn, where they lived in the same house for 40 years. It was in this house that they raised two daughters, Jennifer and Christine. Richard loved helping the girls with school projects, running around the block with the girls to train them for field day, and being able to fix anything, including his car and the girls' bikes. While not the type of dad to play Barbie, he taught the girls special skills such as playing cards, making a monkey's fist knot, shooting a bow and arrow, or picking a lock.

Richard had a quick wit, great sense of humor, magnetic and BIG personality and a winning smile that made him friends everywhere he went. After 35 years and retiring as a signal maintainer for the NYC transit, he remained part of the Transit Brotherhood. He kept close with his friends by attending luncheons, holiday parties and retirement dinners. When Richard and Peggy downsized to a three-bedroom condo in Marine Park, he had the opportunity to meet new friends whether in the halls of the place he now called home or the various senior centers he and his wife joined.

Richard enjoyed his retirement ("The check keeps coming in"). Richard and Peggy made frequent trips to Atlantic City where he ate at buffets, honed his slot machine skills, competed in slot tournaments, and collected many casino points and free gifts from various casinos. Richard and Peggy traveled to Hawaii and cruised on the Queen Mary, and with the entire family they also vacationed to dude ranches each year.

He took great delight in the challenge of finding and collecting various “treasures.” He spent endless hours cooking, painting, talking with friends, watching TV and reading magazines, newspapers, cook books, car books, or anything with writing in it. But most of all he enjoyed being with family, especially his three grandkids. Richard was a loved and wonderful husband, dad, father-in-law, brother-in-law, relative, and friend, but he was the greatest grandfather, whether he went by the name Poppy or GungGung. He took great pleasure in watching DVDs and videos with the grandkids, playing games with them, giving them endless presents, seeing their sporting events, driving them to the library, IHOP, Boston Market, or Starbucks, and eating sushi, raw clams, donuts, ice cream, or pizza with them.

He is survived by his cherished wife Peggy of 50 years, his daughters and sons-in-law, Jennifer and Peter Van Syckle and Christine and James Baggs, and much-loved grandchildren, Jenna and PJ Van Syckle and Alexa Baggs. He will be missed but never forgotten. Relatives and friends may offer the family condolences or share fond memories by posting below. Weather permitting, the funeral service will be held at Resurrection Church, 2331 Gerritsen Ave Brooklyn, NY on Thursday February 4th at 1030 am. No interment will follow. The family kindly requests no flowers

“ I'm going to miss Richie when I don't see him at any future retirement dinners. Richie and I both began our careers in the Transit Authorities Signal Department in the mid 1960's. We worked together assisting Track Department workers replace worn out track rails all over the transit system. When we reported to work at midnight, at Canal Street, his greeting to me and others would be "Hey baby" and then later on would come the "Hey did you know" and then some story would follow that would make you and him laugh together. We spent lots of time together riding the iron horse (trains) to different job sites and just talking about everyday things. He once invited both my wife and I to have dinner with him in China Town. This was when he still lived on Mott Street. He told us "Hey baby, I'm going to take you to a real Chinese restaurant" and down some basement we went and had a great meal. My wife always remembered that day and him because of the warmhearted and funny person he was. Whenever I came home from a retirement dinner she would ask me, did you see your friend Chow. Throughout the years working, we would see each other from time to time since we both were working at different locations. It was always good to meet and share memories. I will surely miss him, and never forget him.

“ Dear Peggy, Jenn & Pete, Chrissie & James, Jenna, PJ, and Alexa,

We were devastated to hear of your losing Rich (Gung-Gung and Poppy). He was always so cheerful and full of life with plenty of adventures to talk about. We could see that he was such a loving, proud and caring husband, father, father-in-law, and grandfather, respectively to you all.

We were very fortunate for many years to have Rich, Peggy, Jenn and Chrissie live literally across the street from Uncle David's and Aunt Linda's home. Rich always made us laugh with the stories he told. And, at family gatherings, especially during Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve, he made each of us feel special.

Most unique and memorable about Rich was his extensive collection. It was remarkable how he knew exactly where everything was. He was only too willing to share by lending or giving away his found treasures. He gleefully gave what he had to match the recipient's need or interest. Rich was most generous and had a good heart.

“ One word to describe Dad was love. Dad was loved and he loved. Everything was great in my Dad's eyes, from the items he discovered, to the meals he had, to the daily encounters he experienced. They were great because of the people he shared them with and the memories that were made.
My father loved his family. I was and will always be daddy's girl. He loved my husband like a son. He treasured my daughter in a way that only her GungGung could. The bond the two partners in crime shared is priceless. My dad loved my mom. He always told me how blessed he was that he had mom. She wasn't his queen, she was more, she was his everything. My only hope is that James and I have a love as strong as mom and dad.
Dad, of all the treasures you have bestowed upon me, I hope you know that you were the best treasure of all. I love you daddy, now and forever.

“ Richard was my mother’s cousin and he was a very loving person. He would always make me laugh. There are so many stories I could recall but the one that stands out in my mind is when he said he had something for me. He came out with a bag with something round in it. I thought perhaps it was a winter melon from his garden but it turned out to be a bowling ball he had found. RIP Richard. We will miss you.

“ I remember Rich was an avid collector of treasures that he was so proud to share with others. Rich was a handyman, car repair enthusiast, food lover, and voracious book reader. Rich had the gift to bond with whomever he met, and made others feel at ease with his humor and relatability. Most importantly was the love he had for his family. We will miss him dearly. We are heartbroken over the loss of Richard.

Richard was an incredible, warm and caring person. He had a wonderful sense of humor and always knew how to make us smile. He was a gifted and funny storyteller. We bonded over the best way to chop an onion or the funny way Chef Tell would end his show, “I see you!” The twinkle in his eye and his bright smile always made you feel like you in on the joke. He was our spark and our light at our family gatherings.

He loved and adored his beautiful family. He was so proud of all of you. May you forever feel his love. God bless you all.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Jen's Mom and Sister, Jenna and PJ in your tragic loss of your Dad. He was truly larger than life, with his personality and energy, so much so, that he left quite an impression on my kids, just from the annual VanSyckle barbecues alone! Who can forget him seeking out "Big Steve" to announce to him that now he had a brand new truck to rival Steve's? Us "working stiffs" gathered around him, jealous, but hopeful, as he told us how much he LOVED retirement, babysitting his grandkids with his wife, and yes, collecting the steady stream of retirement checks out of the mailbox :). It was obvious he was having a ball everyday ! Here's hoping we can all find what he had in our own lives !*

“ *Aunt Jennie, Uncle Pete, Jenna, PJ, Mrs. Chow, and Chow family, I am heartbroken and so deeply sorry for your loss. Mr. Chow was an absolutely amazing man and made a positive impact on so many lives. He not only brought joy to his family, extended family, and friends but anybody that was around him. Mr. Chow was the catalyst of happiness at family gatherings/parties and could put a smile on the grumpiest of people. When I first met him long ago, I was a socially awkward young teenager, but he made me feel comfortable and I enjoyed talking with him and listening to his stories. His ability to make people laugh was undeniable, but what I loved most about him was his love for his family. It could be seen that he adored his wife and he loved his daughters and grandchildren so much. On several occasions, I can recall seeing his face light up with so much pride of his daughters and especially his grandchildren. The world lost a treasure of a human being, but I know his spirit will live on always. I'm thankful to have met Mr. Chow and I'll never forget the priceless memories and the great person he was. “ Richard, as a youth, came to spend summers on a farm near Morgantown. He loved answering the phone at the Stoltzfus Farm. When we would phone Moses and Rhoda Stoltzfus, Richard, loved to answer their phone. It was a good mile for him to hike to visit us in Morgantown. We were always happy to have him visit. Richard was excited about everything and we loved his enthusiasm. We always enjoyed having Richard and Peggy and their two beautiful daughters visit us here in Morgantown, PA. They were often accompanied by Peggy's mother. There's a very popular Deli in Morgantown where Richard would order their Richie special and Peggy and Sara Ann would share Philadelphia's famous cheese steak although they would ask for a few alterations adding or subtracting and making sure it had mushrooms. “ To Jennie, Christine & Peggy,

We are are heartbroken to hear Richard died last week. His legacy will live on in you all and his beautiful grandchildren - Jenna, PJ & Alexa.

We were fortunate enough to know Richard over the last 20+ years when Jennie & the Chow family married our brother Pete. Richard embraced Pete like he was his own son. Richard would lighten the mood of any event with his quick wit and great sense of humor. His infamous Bavarian hot dogs, collection of VHS tapes, enjoyment of a good Budweiser, and infectious laughter will surely be missed. He was the life of the family parties - always holding court at the grill or telling stories & jokes or talking about his AC adventures or giving advice on investments or great VHS movies to watch.

He was just an all around great guy & we will truly miss him. Heaven gained a hard-working, honest, genuine angel that will watch proudly over his loving wife, daughters & grandchildren as they shine and carry on Richard's legacy.

“Dad was the best father-in-law a guy could ever hope to have. He had a great sense of humor, an extremely optimistic view of life and he was the giver of gifts.

He had an interest in collecting random items, but always seemed to have whatever you needed, whenever it was needed. His generosity was plentiful and would part with anything if you needed it.

I will always remember his random wants. Whenever we would see him he would bring something completely out the norm from what was expected. I will dearly miss the mischievous smile he would have when looking at an overflowing plate or an item that he had his heart set on.

The inspiration and encouragement he gave to me will never be forgotten. His impact on me was significant.

He would tell me, frequently, that life was good. I can only hope that his life was as good as his contribution was to ours.

“ Uncle Richie,

As you are sitting up there looking down upon us all, don't forget to sprinkle back down some of that heavenly grace, humor, kindness and chivalrous nature that you brought up there with you. The world needs more of that, and you need to share it with us again just as you did when we were blessed with your presence.

Wow! its been over 25 years since I met you when Jenn was attending law school. At the time you were always the proud and doting father and also indulged my curiosity about working on the tracks of the NYC subways.

As we all started families and started bringing our kids together it would be your wide smile that would be memorable to my sons. You were a hard person to forget.

I was also lucky enough to browse through your treasured books and records in your basement. Alas, when you had to give away many of your records, somebody had already beaten me to Elvis and Frankie.

You were always the first to offer me a beer. Although I sense that it may have been a bribe to bring your favorite roast pork buns (or as you would say "cha shiu bao") from Chinatown.

Let your blessings shine upon Peggy, Jenn, Chrissie, Peter, James, Jenna, PJ and Alexa.

“ Dear Chow/Van Syckle/Baggs Family,

John and I are so very sorry for the loss of the patriarch of this wonderful family. So many of the posts have already captured who Richard was as a man, a husband, father and grandfather, uncle, co-worker and friend. We concur. He was that, and surely a fine example of how to live a truly joyful life with gratitude for each day that was given to him. I guess that is why we all feel this loss so deeply... who will remind us to live that kind of life without him here to help us? The obituary that Peggy, Jen and Chris wrote was exquisite and captured him perfectly. Such wonderful memories... I love all the stories. John and I wish to add a few more to the collection...

I remembered when we first met the Chows. We were meeting Jennie's family for the first time, after their engagement. It was at a BBQ that Pete and Jen had prepared to bring the immediate families together. The Van Syckles were just getting out of the cars and low and behold out comes Mr. Chow with a platter full of freshly grilled hotdogs. He called out to us... "Who's ready for some" Bavarian Hotdogs! Freshly grilled, get them while they're hot." Pete, red-faced, but with a big smile, shrugged his shoulders and said... that's Mr. Chow! At this point we knew we were in for some fun... and that's the way it has been for the past 20 plus years... wonderful fun!

The world had gotten a little smaller sharing the title "family" with the Chows. One time some of us found ourselves enjoying some time in Atlantic City... I can't remember the occasion, but with a couple of complimentary buffet tickets, Peggy and Richard, without hesitation invited us to dinner at one of the casinos. We got in line and when it was our turn to get a table, the hostess asked how many, they responded without hesitation "nine, it's the family." That's how Peggy and Richard always made us feel... like family!

John and I will Richard, terribly... a man of dignity, rooted in humility.

Of course he lives on in our memories and we will watch his influence live on in his grandchildren.

We wish you all peace as you grieve your loss. We love you all.

Many prayerful blessings, Kathy and John Solu

“Peggy, Jennifer, Christine, Peter, James, Jenna, PJ and Alexa, I was so saddened to here about Richard. Richard was always genuinely happy to see you and always loved to have a laugh and catch up when he did see you. I want to stress “genuine”. There was never any false pretense with Richard. He was a happy man and and was proud of his family, his daughters and those 3 beautiful grandchildren. You got the feeling he knew how blessed and lucky he was. He was a man who loved his life. Richard will be sorely missed, his quick laughter and huge heart will not be forgotten. My deepest condolences go out to all of his family.

“ I only had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Chow on a few occasions when he happily chauffeured Jennifer down to the Atlantic City area so she could work in the AC office while he and his wife hit the casinos for the afternoon. Its rare and refreshing to meet a person that is consistently upbeat and happy even after a 2 and a half hour ride from New York down the Garden State Parkway. He was smiling just like he was in the picture when he arrived and when he left- win or lose and also facing the prospect of sitting in traffic with Jen for the ride home. He showed his caring nature by both refusing to allow me carry heavy boxes of paperwork and supplies out to his car and expressing concern over the musty office space I chose to save a few bucks for the law firm- I quickly followed his advice and moved to another location. I also had the pleasure of serving as his local weather man when he would insist on driving down to Atlantic City in blizzards. I know your family has millions more happy memories of him and will keep his memory alive with stories of his life.

*My condolences for your loss

“Peggy, Jennifer, Christine, Pete, James, Jenna, PJ and Alexa. Richard truly had a special gift of making people comfortable and laugh with him. His laugh was contagious and he always managed to make us smile with his funny anecdotes and amusing stories (I believe he is doing some form of stand-up in heaven, keeping the souls, saints and angels in stitches). One summer party, Richard assumed the role of grill master and was so distracted by all the hilarious conversations surrounding him--that he burned over a dozen, quality hot dogs. He didn't believe in waste (nor do I), so he handed out and introduced his "Bavarian Hot Dogs" to the masses (we smothered them with sauerkraut, catchup, onions and other condiments to give them some flavor). Richard was also a very generous man. He gifted his entire collection of "Star Wars" movies to the Van Syckle Boys (we still watch them today and will think of Richard even more). Richard, we miss you, but love you even more. Love always, Glenn, Maura, Jack, Dan and Liam Van Syckle

“Peg, Jennifer, Christine, Pete, Jenna, PJ, James, and Alexa, We are so very sorry for your loss. Our entire family (VS and Kenny) loved Richard. We really enjoyed sharing a good laugh and good conversation, loved his upbeat, kind, and generous personality. His love for Peg, Jennifer and Christine was evident to all that knew him, and that love continued with Pete, James, Jenna, Alexa and PJ. He was so proud of his family and his daughters accomplishments which was a wonderful reflection of how Richard and Peggys raised their daughters. Richard was full of life, fun to be around and will be missed by all that knew him! We always enjoyed our New York conversations as well! May you keep his memories and love of life alive! God Bless Richard! Love, Glenn, Maura, Jack, Dan and Liam

“ Mr. Chow was the most vibrant person I ever met. He would light up the room with his humor, laughter and his contagious smile. His presence was larger than life and he made friends every where he would go. He truly made an impact on everyone he would meet. His presence was magnetic and people were drawn towards him. I always looked forward to seeing him at family parties because I knew he would be there and he would make everything so much fun and exciting with his enthusiasm and engaging personality. He would make me laugh and laugh until my face and belly hurt for days. His beautiful bright soul will sorely be missed but I know heaven is now blessed with more love, light and laughter now that he is there. 🧡✨

“ Uncle Richie is incredibly special to me and my family. He always made me smile and helped make me aware of the “little things” that bring just as much happiness in life. While working for the NYC transit, he would gather items that he'd think I would appreciate (in many instances even refurbishing them on his own) and pass them along to my mom to deliver to me on her commute home. Some of these items included books, belts, pocketknives, metal toe boots, ice skates and even skis, which Uncle Richie added my full name on the top of them in orange decal. Just one example of how special he made me and my family feel. With much love, heavy heart and unforgettable memories, Greg & Family.

“ Over the years, we have had the pleasure of sharing a number of celebrations with Richard and his family. What was obvious right away, was his extraordinary love for Peggy, daughters Jennifer and Christine, and their families. For Richard, it was the little things that brought joy --which seemed to carry over to everyone whose lives he touched.

Although taken from us too soon, no one will forget that smile, his laughter and love of life. We surely will not.

“ Dear Mrs. Chow, Jennie, and Christine,

Our deepest sympathies are with you and your family during this difficult time. Mr. Chow was always the heart of every gathering and he made sure to talk with everyone. Even if you only knew him for a minute, Mr. Chow had a magical ability for putting you at ease and spoke with you as if you knew each other for decades. His conversations were endlessly engaging and consisted of a wide variety of topics. His favorite topic was his beloved family, which had no equal in his heart. His second favorite topic was his "treasures." There was no limit to the treasures he found, where he found them, or why they caught his eye.

Mr. Chow brought great joy and laughter into our lives and will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. If there is anything we can do for you, please let us know.

It is a beautiful obituary. Our deepest condolences to you Peggy and family. Although we had only met you a few years ago through Helen and Bob it was a define pleasure to share good memories. Richard was one of a kind. A beautiful, welcoming person to those who surrounded him. My best memory was our trip to Atlantic City and how comfortable we felt being together. His love for life and this country was a true treasure. May he Rest In Peace and may God grant you strength.

Richard's kind and generous spirit filled the hearts of his many friends at the senior center in Bergen Beach where those of us who became "lunch buddies" each week with Richard and Peggy shared many happy tales of the love and joy their daughters and grandchildren brought to them. I pray that his beautiful love for others will live on in the hearts of the children he adored. Richard we will look after your beautiful Peggy.

*Dear Auntie Peggy, Jennie, and Christine,
Please accept our deepest condolences. We are so thankful for the times we've spent with you and Richard, talking about growing up as a young couple in NYC's Chinatown, where we also grew up only a few decades later. We always looked forward to seeing you two whenever we would come over and it would always be a blast, with nonstop laughing. *Dear Mrs. Chow, Jenny, Crissy and family,
There are no words to describe how sorry I am.
Losing Mr. Chow is something beyond words. He was an amazing man who I loved very much as if he was my own father.
From the first time my family met Mr. Chow his personality was the type that you felt you knew him your entire life. His positivity, sense of humor and passion for life was contagious. When you was around him, just listening to his stories made you want to experience everything he did. He was an amazing man and a true gift to every person he came in contact with.
He was a true friend to my parents. The kind of man my father looked forward to seeing and having a drink with... in fact it was harder to separate the two of them than it was Jenny and I weh the time came to go home.
He was a proud man who loved life, his family and friends. I truly appreciate all the wonderful memories I have with Mr. Chow. He was the type of person who made you feel that you could accomplish anything you wanted to do as long as you wanted it. He was caring, supportive, friendly, and most of all very funny!
I will always carry him in my heart because he was a gift given to me to always treasure. Love you always, rest in Peace Maryanne*

It's hard putting into words what Richie has meant to me - not only as my favorite cousin but also as a big brother while growing up in NYC. I have fond memories of Richie and the interesting tidbits he taught m. I remember getting our first stereo set with speakers and Richie introducing us to rock and roll and LPs. I also remember Richie taking Sue and me to the movies, particularly "Bridge Over the River Kwai" when Richie explained to Sue and me that the Japanese planes in one scene were really American plans, At 5, I thought it had to be important to note if Richie felt compelled to point it out. Richie was also an avid collector. Even with this hobby, Richie would look for items that he thought someone in the family could use. I remember the frame to our first couch and books about trains came from Richie's trips along Fifth and Park Avenues. I will miss Richie's happy go lucky disposition and his positive and non-judgmental attitude and world view. I know he loved his Peggy, Jenn, Chrissie, Jenna, PJ and Alexa, as well as Pete and James. He has told me on many occasions how blessed he was to have such a wonderful and loving family, and a great legacy you all are.
