“ In all the years I was blessed to have amazing friends in NJ, I think most about not just my friends but their parents who always, without a doubt, made me feel at home, a part of the family, and accepting. May Heaven's Grace and God's Mercy make you feel the same Mr. O'Neill...you will be missed.

“ A lifetime of memories. Growing up living in the projects, moving to Gerritsen Beach with the dirt roads. We used to come home all muddy and filthy dirty with dust all over us. We moved to Gotham Ave. and lived on the canal and learned how to swim or sink. Walked off the dock into 15 feet of water. There was no shallow end. Sneaking smokes for our parents and landlords. My most memorable moment of my brother was when we went to Yankee Stadium and lost him. My mother was pissed. There are many more but that stuck in my mind the most. We shared bunk beds and a dresser. He had all his comic books in the bottom draw and I have to reach down and get them. He was my little brother but most of all he was my friend.
