“ I am so sorry for the loss you are feeling as his mother and his little sisters, all those who truly loved him....I met him when he was 16 as my niece's boyfriend and thought he was nice sweet respectful kid... It's terrible that he is no longer here and I will pray for you and yours for some kind of peace down this road

“ I remember when Lisa told us she was pregnant with him. She had him 3 mos after I had my son. When he moved to Brooklyn he would come see my son and daughter and take them and introduce them to all his friends. He was always so friendly to is. I am so sorry Lisa,Regena, Thease, Even and Tabitha there will never be enough words to express how you must feel. Love you all. I am thinking of you guys and pray for peace for each one of you.

“ In May we attended Evan's First Communion. Tayler and I had a long talk about when he was born in Tampa and how we knew him as an infant. I invited him to come visit us. It hurts my heart to say goodbye. Go with God.
