“ Although not a blood relative, I have been honored to have known Aunt Virginia for most of my life. In the past couple of years, I had the pleasure of speaking with her regularly. She was such a joy. We usually laughed during our calls, but I particularly enjoyed her memories of growing up. She also loved talking about her nieces and nephews and their children, and how much they do for her, and how she talks to the children on the phone. She missed her sisters and brothers so much, I have no doubt they were all there to take her home. I will truly miss our calls, but so happy to have these wonderful memories. God Bless you, Aunt Virginia - you are loved.

*Love,
Donna*
